CLEVELAND, Ohio — Oct. 1, 2026 — Four cast members from The Chosen and musical group The Piano Guys will visit Northeast Ohio Nov. 13–15 for NEOChosen Weekend, a regional gathering of live music, cast conversations, meet-and-greets and community events organized by Kirtland Heritage Group and presented by Great Lakes Auto Group. Participating cast members include Shaan Sharma (Shmuel), Noah James (Andrew), Vanessa Benavente (Mother Mary) and Yasmine Al-Bustami (Ramah).

The Piano Guys will perform Saturday, Nov. 14, at 4 p.m. at Akron Civic Theatre. Tickets go on sale Friday, Oct. 2, 2026. Visit NEOChosen.com for ticket information. The weekend also includes three free public events requiring advance registration, plus a VIP donor and sponsor gathering.

Kirtland Heritage Group projects approximately 5,000 event attendances across the weekend, building on its 2025 programs featuring cast members from The Chosen, which welcomed nearly 1,800 attendees and representatives from 158 congregations across Northern Ohio.

“We want to bring families, congregations, community organizations and neighbors together for a weekend centered on faith, music, service and connection,” said Joe Jackson, president of Kirtland Heritage Group. “Our goal is to create an atmosphere where people from different communities and faith traditions feel welcome.”
